

careeronestop
PATHWAYS TO CAREER SUCCESS

your pathway
to career success

CareerOneStop is a U.S. Department of Labor-sponsored Web site that offers career resources and workforce information to job seekers, students, businesses, and workforce professionals to foster talent development in a global economy.

CareerOneStop Web Sites

- CareerOneStop provides resources to foster talent development, career management, and lifelong learning. The Web site features career tools, workforce data, information, and links to local services for job seekers, students, businesses, and career professionals. (www.CareerOneStop.org)
- America's Career InfoNet offers quick access to CareerOneStop's occupation and industry information, salary data, career videos, education resources, self-assessment tools, career exploration assistance, and other resources that support talent development in today's global economy. (www.CareerInfoNet.org)
- America's Service Locator connects individuals to employment and training opportunities available at local One-Stop Career Centers. The Web site provides contact information for a range of local work-related services, including unemployment benefits, career development, and educational opportunities. (www.ServiceLocator.org)

Toll Free Help Lines

- Call 1-877-US2-JOBS (1-877-872-5627 or TTY: 1-877-889-5627) for information about career services for workers and employers, laid-off worker assistance, and the location of One-Stop Career Centers.
- Call 1-877-348-0502 (TTY: 1-877-348-0501) for help using the CareerOneStop Web sites.

Additional Resources

- Career Voyages informs young adults about occupations that are in demand in high-growth industries. This interactive Web site provides information regarding the skills and education required for these occupations, and users find education and other opportunities to advance in a career path toward a brighter future. The Web site is also co-sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education. (www.CareerVoyages.gov)
- O*NET OnLine (Occupational Information Network) serves as the nation's primary source of occupational skills and competency information, providing comprehensive information on key attributes and characteristics of workers and occupations. (<http://online.ONETcenter.org>)
- Competency Model Clearinghouse provides the business community with a means to communicate its skill needs to educators and the workforce system in a common industry-driven framework. The models and other competency-based resources support development of curriculum and increased awareness of careers in high-growth industries. (www.CareerOneStop.org/CompetencyModel)
- Workforce<sup>3</sup> One offers workforce professionals, employers, economic developers, and education professionals a dynamic knowledge network featuring innovative workforce solutions. Online learning events, resource information, and tools help organizations learn how to develop strategies that enable individuals to be successful in the 21st century economy by understanding the skills and competencies needed by business and industry. (www.Workforce3One.org)
- MilSpouse helps military spouses find employment and education opportunities and provides information to help military families with relocations. The Web site also is co-sponsored by the U.S. Department of Defense. (www.MilSpouse.org)
- Key to Career Success provides career information and links to work-related services that help veterans and military service members successfully transition to civilian careers. (www.CareerOneStop.org/MilitaryTransition)

www.CareerOneStop.org