

CareerOneStop (COS) offers career resources and workforce information to job seekers, students, businesses, and workforce professionals to foster talent development in today's global economy. (www.CareerOneStop.org)

New resources include:

- Worker Reemployment information
- Green careers
- Employment trends showing the hot jobs by state
- Salary tool to create charts and compare wages across jobs and states
- Short-term Training Finder
- Certification Finder
- Education and Training Finder to locate schools and programs
- One-Stop Career Centers
- Local library finder

The COS Web site features:

- America's Career InfoNet (ACINET) helps individuals explore career opportunities to make informed employment and education choices. The Web site features user-friendly occupation and industry information, salary data, career videos, education resources, self-assessment tools, career exploration assistance, and other resources that support talent development. (www.CareerInfoNet.org)
- America's Service Locator (ASL) connects individuals to employment and training opportunities available at local One-Stop Career Centers. The Web site provides contact information for a range of local work-related services, including unemployment benefits, career development, and educational opportunities. (www.ServiceLocator.org)

Additional Resources

- The Toll Free Help Line (TFHL), 1-877-US2-JOBS, connects individuals that prefer to use a telephone to obtain up-to-date, accurate information about the full range and location of workforce services for employers, workers/job seekers, and workforce professionals. Along with America's Service Locator, it is the "front door" to our services administered at the Federal, state, and local level. The help line refers over 220,000 callers annually to these services, and is a core component of the Department's National Call Center.
